"August Flower"

Billiousness, Constipation, Stomach Pains.

"I have been afflicted with billiousness and constipation for fifteen years; first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried but to no purpose. At last a friend recommended August Flower. I took it according to directions and its effects were wonderful, relieving me of those disagreeable stomach pains which I had been troubled with so long. Words cannot describe the admiration in which I hold your August Flower—it has given me a new lease of life, which before was a burden. Such a medicine is a benediction to humanity, and its good qualities and wonderful merits should be made known to everyone suffering with dyspepsia or billiousness."

A Desperate Way to Make Money.

About the most desperate thing I ever heard of in the way of money-raising came to my professional notice some years ago, and a detective to me.

"Complaint was made at the office that a diamond stud, valued at over a thousand dollars, had been stolen from a certain up town house. I was detailed on the case, and after a few hours found the stone, which had been pawned for $500. When stolen property is found at a pawnbroker's the amount advanced on it is returned to him, either by the owner or the thief, if his resources will allow of such a thing. The law protects the broker, and it is proper that it should, but the capture and conviction of the thief is a necessary factor in such cases. This time no trace of the burglar could be found.

"The owners proved property and the brilliant was returned to them. It represented at this stage, a clear gain for the rascal and a dead loss for the pawnbroker.

"It was not long before we had our man, though, and then there was prompt conviction, a sentence of one year in the Elmira reformatory and a vain search for the owners of the property.

"The matter dropped from my mind in the rush of other business, until one day I learned the secret of the whole operation. The thief had been the deed of the son of the 'robbed' family. They were sorely in need of money, and had resorted to this way of getting it. When called on to reimburse the luckless pawnbroker they were apparently penniless. The thief had then gone free, and all the parties interested had dropped from sight. That fellow was paid, or rather paid himself, at the rate of three dollars per day during his stay in Elmira."—New York Herald.

CONGRESSIONAL INCONGRUITIES.

The remarkable effects of the legislation of Mr. Reed's Billion Dollar Congress, in which a Democrat was recognized only when it was necessary to use his name for that of an absent Republican in making it appear that a quorum of members was present, are now becoming manifest.

The $100,000,000 surplus, collected from the whole people of the United States by excessive taxation, which that Congress found in the Treasury, has been squandered and a deficiency, notwithstanding the increased revenues, from imports, which are said to be far above the average in anticipation of the McKinley bill, stares the Treasury Department square in the face, and puts Secretary Foster to his wits' ends to ward off. This Congress while proclaiming that the foreign manufacturer and producer, not the American consumer, pays the tariff on imports, boasts that it put more articles on the free list than the Mills bill thereby, if its theory is correct, releasing the foreign producer from the payment of a part of our taxes, and making the burden heavier for American consumers. It claimed to have increased the wages of the workman by advancing the price of commodities manufactured by monopolies, but compelled Government employees at the Carson Mint to accept a reduction of ten per cent. in wages or seek employment elsewhere. It made silver, upon the production of which the prosperity of several States in the Union is to a great extent dependent, a commodity, with no fixed value, and virtually left it to the option of an Administration known to be hostile to the metal, whether or not its coinage shall cease at the Mints. While refusing to pass the Stanford bill, to loan money on farms at two per cent per annum interest, it forced the financial agents of the Government by its excessive appropriations, to negotiate a new loan, at two per cent. interest, the bonds for which are now being prepared by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. It imposed a duty of 25 cents per bushel on wheat, where every intelligent person in the country knows that Liverpool, England, fixes the price of that grain not only in Chicago, Illinois, but in the valleys of Nevada, as the surplus must be shipped to Europe to find a market at any price. It subsidized steamship lines, some of which (like the Pacific Mail for instance, which recently announced that its net profits in the last year amounted to $300,000) are declaring large dividends, but refused to appropriate a dollar to survey sites for storage of water in Nevada. It appropriated about $18,000,000 to refund the tax on incomes collected a quarter of a century ago, and which the people had forgotten, but positively refused to allow Nevada what it expended in organizing and equipping troops to suppress Indian hostilities at a time when the product of the mines in this State sustained the credit of the Nation.

The incongruities and inconsistencies of Mr. Reed's Congress could be extended indefinitely, and if the next Congress, which will be largely Democratic, does no better, than every honest man in the country should join the People's or some other party that will legislate for the whole country, not for the benefit of a few.

A CHICAGO HOG.

A Chicago hog has just given the people of that enterprising city an idea of what he can do in the way of creating excitement and amusement when, in the slang of the day, "he turns himself loose." The porker was being conveyed to an abattoir in an express wagon, when he severed the cords that bound him and asserted his independence. This he accomplished in front of the Wellington House. Foaming at the mouth and snorting with rage, he unceremoniously entered the ladies' cafe, which was crowded with the beauty and fashion of Chicago. All the women screamed, some of them fainted, and others climbed on to chairs and tables. The hog made the circuit of the cafe, upsetting furniture, smashing crockery and glass ware, and strewing the floor with the delicacies prepared for the fair guests. Shrieks rent the air, cries of murder echoed through the cafe, the fire department turned out and platoons of policemen hastened to the scene. Meantime, unintimidated by the crowd, and maddened by the noise, he snapped at everybody within reach, and being master of the situation, sought, as it were, new worlds to conquer, and carried the war into Africa by entering the gentlemen's cafe, which was also crowded. There he pursued the same tactics as in the ladies' room, until policemen and waiters arrived with billiard cues and revolvers, chair legs and cuspidors, and caused him to retreat to the hall and thence to the corridor, where he was finally vanquished by superior force, again bound and carried into captivity.

This proves that Congress made no mistake in selecting Chicago for the World's Fair, as the American hog, which abounds in that city, if given opportunity can create excitement enough to satisfy the most exacting, whether he be a Mississippi raftsmen or a Texas cowboy.

The trouble at the New Castle, Washington, coal mines remains unsettled. The mine owners want the Governor to declare martial law in the district, but he is averse to resorting to such harsh measures until the civil power is exhausted. The committee of citizens appointed to secure the surrender of arms from the white and black miners, has failed in its mission and the members have resigned.

A Simple Fire Extinguisher.

It is the opinion of experts that much of the money which is spent by factories, mills and stores on the introduction of pipes and valves for fire extinction might be saved by the adoption of a much simpler and more efficient method. Both sulphur and ammonia are well adapted for extinguishing fire. Sulphur absorbs oxygen and forms sulphuric acid, the fumes of which are much heavier than air. The quantity required would be small, since seventy grammes of sulphur can make one hundred cubic meters of air inimical to combustion. An effective sulphur extinguishing apparatus can be made of a large iron box of moderate depth and open at the top.

It should be hinged at one end or side to a protected ceiling, and kept close thereto by a cord or wire connected with a wire or strap formed chiefly of cadmium fusible at 144 degs. Fahrenheit. Inside the box is placed a considerable quantity of cotton wadding, well saturated with powdered sulphur. On the heat of an incipient fire melting the wire or strip, the box drops a short distance; by a simple device the cotton wadding is ignited at the same moment, and a strong cloud of sulphurous acid gas is instantly evolved, which extinguishes the fire by rendering the air unfit for combustion.—New York Telegram.

Cunning Siberian Natives.

When compelled to travel all night, the Siberian natives always make a practice of stopping just before sunrise and allowing their dogs to go to sleep. They argue that if the dog goes to sleep while it is yet dark and wakes up in an hour and finds the sun shining, he will suppose that he has had a full night's rest, and will travel all day without thinking of being tired. One or even two hours' stop at any other time is perfectly useless, as the dogs will be uncontrollable from that time forward until they are permitted to take what they think a full allowance of sleep.—St. Louis Republic.

WHAT IS SCROFULA.

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED.

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofula, a sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLISLE, Nauright, N. J.

Brace Up, Boys!
What is the matter with our boys?
Are the public schools too much for them?
Not long ago one of our newly elected congressmen notified the lads of his district that they were all welcome to try for a cadetship at West Point and that the best man would get the place, irrespective of race, color or financial condition.
A large list of applicants responded, but, strange to say, the utmost difficulty was experienced in finding youths that came up to the physical standard required for entrance to the military school. One doctor examined seven applicants and found only one to whom he could give a clean bill of health, and this was about the general average.
The boys came from the working classes.
Many New York physicians believe that the terrific grind that the old mollies of the board of education have forced upon our children in the public school has much to do with the deterioration of the health of the coming generation. I know one public school principal that sends his boys to a private school, and when I asked him the reason, "I would not let them go to the public school for the world," said he.
"I have seen the thing work for twenty years, and I know that the system that exists in New York today is harmful to any but the very sturdiest and laziest kind of children."
Men and brethren, are not these things worth thinking about?—New York Her-

A Clergyman's Strange Disease.
The death of the Rev. Thomas Pitts, D. D., of Pittsburg, gives to medical science the strangest case ever known in pathology. An autopsy has disclosed that the late minister had a veritable thorn in his brain.
Dr. Samuel Ayers, the specialist on diseases of the brain, conducted the post mortem. When the skull was opened a long plate was discovered. It was two inches in length, three-quarters of an inch in width, and had a very rough surface. It was found occupying a part of the membranous partition, between the two hemispheres of the brain. The minister died suffering from convulsions, which were doubtless caused by this bony growth.
This also explains all that seemed unaccountable in Dr. Pitts' erratic conduct and actions during the last few years of his life. Dr. Ayers said he did not believe there was a similar case in the history of medicine. As yet he is unable to explain the presence of this strange growth. There is more or less bone deposit in the brain, but why this form was taken is still unexplainable.—Cor.

Street Car Sprinklers.
In St. Paul, where not long ago a brand new cable plant valued at $400,000 was consigned to the scrap heap in order that the street railway company might install electric cars on its lines, an ingenious method has been adopted for the laying of the dust which in summer time causes much annoyance to passengers. A line of water cars, very much after the fashion of the ordinary street sprinklers, are being built, and on each water car will be mounted a tank 6 by 6 and 12 feet long. Two or three cars will be connected by hose and attached to the locomotive, so that one train can sprinkle the whole track. The journey between St. Paul and Minneapolis will thus, in future, be as rapid and pleasant as it was formerly tedious and distressing, and the inhabitants of those cities are looking forward with much satisfaction to the prospect of cool and enjoyable travel.—New York Recorder.

Costly Food for a Goat.
Heated with his work in the field Farmer Kalbach, of Reading, hung his vest upon a fence post. In one of the vest pockets inclosed in a wallet were greenbacks to the amount of forty-one dollars.
In the field was Mr. Kalbach's pet goat. In the goat's stomach, when Kalbach returned, were the bank bills, most of the wallet and a large portion of the vest.
Kalbach at once slaughtered his pet goat. All but fifteen dollars of the greenbacks had been properly chewed in aid of his goatship's digestion. The twenty-six dollars thus chewed was past redemption.—Philadelphia Record.

Goodby, Yuma.
There is a strong probability that the romantic old town of Yuma will pass out of existence. For years the track of the Southern Pacific in the locality of the town has been entirely washed out, or so badly damaged that thousands of dollars had to be expended to put it back into condition. Last winter three-quarters of the town itself was destroyed by floods, and now the railroad contemplates changing the route so as to leave Yuma off the line by crossing the river several miles north of the old site.—Santa Ana (Cal.) Press.

Great improvement has recently been made in the manufacture of glass for optical instruments by means of the addition to the ordinary materials of phosphorus and chlorine, which in some yet unexplained way cause the glass to be very much more transparent and enable it to receive a much higher degree of polish than any optical glass hitherto manufactured.
Louis Whitcomb, of Dayton, O., has for three years suffered from a painful but obscure stomach ailment. Dr. Weiss gave him an emetic, which disclosed that a frog had been the cause of the trouble.
A German labor editor was fined recently for publishing the list of workmen killed in a mine disaster alongside of the amount distributed as dividends among the owners of the mines.
A New York fair has been arrested for staying trip balloons into perforated tin can and selling them to unsuspecting home-wives as Chinese lanterns.
